++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cold and bright. Rain and snow tonight.

Today:
A bright and cold day with some sunny spells, although patchy mist and freezing fog patches possible. Ice will affect some untreated surfaces and winds will be light. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tonight:
Rain and snow will push in from the northwest later this evening and overnight. Much of this will be light, but lying snow for some and an increasing ice risk. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Thursday:
Any rain and snow soon fizzling out to leave a mainly dry and bright day with some sunny spells. However, a scattering of wintry showers will develop. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Isolated snow showers on Friday, otherwise bright and cold. Patchy light rain pushing in from the west on Saturday. Rather cloudy but milder by Sunday.
